Cognitive  Mobility

5TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON COGNITIVE MOBILITY BUDAPEST, HUNGARY | OCTOBER 8–9, 2026

EXHIBITION & SPONSORATION

Cognitive Mobility (CogMob) 2026 explores the interdisciplinary domains of mobility, transportation, vehicle engineering, social sciences, artificial intelligence and cognitive infocommunications.

The primary objective of CogMob is to provide a holistic understanding of mobility, emphasizing how it can be modeled, enhanced and optimized through the integration of artificial and human cognitive systems. This perspective treats the entire mobility ecosystem as a unified CogMob entity, investigating the emergent cognitive capabilities and innovative solutions arising from this fusion.

WE WELCOME companies and organizations to showcase their innovations, demonstrations and forward-looking concepts in (but not limited to) the following areas.

The CogMob Conference offers a platform for companies, researchers and policymakers to showcase their innovations, exchange knowledge and foster collaborations. Companies can choose from a variety of presentation formats that best fit their objectives.

APPEARANCE OPTIONS COULD BE FOR EXAMPLE:

- Online or traditional brochure-style presentations
- On-site exhibition booths
- Professional talks or poster sessions
- Event support (coffee breaks, networking dinners, etc.)
- Organization of dedicated customer meetings
- Industry demonstrations and roundtables
- Distribution of brochures, promotional tools, and roll-ups
- Tailored participation packages are available to simplify selection and organizers can assist in creating custom solutions for each company

WHY SHOWCASE YOUR SOLUTIONS?

- Showcase your innovations to leading companies, researchers and decision-makers in the mobility sector
- Present your products, demos and solutions at a high-profile platform designed for visibility and impact
- Connect directly with potential clients, partners and collaborators shaping the future of cognitive mobility and smart logistics

If you are interested, please get in touch with us at the conference@kogmob.hu e-mail address.
